Supplemental Information

Necco's Independent Living program combines therapeutic support with practical, real-world skills designed especially for young adults aged 18-21 who are aging out of foster care. In most cases these youth have no viable biological home or family supports to fall back on when times get tough. For these youth a positive start to life on their own is absolutely ESSENTIAL to a positive life outcome. Our program seeks to empower young people by helping them help themselves. Our program focuses on focuses on skills that promote self-reliance, good citizenship, responsibility, and self-esteem. We will accept youth that do not have a high school diploma or GED (we will assist the youth with obtaining once in our program). All IL staff have been trained to complete the ASAP suicide assessment All therapeutic staff can complete substance abuse (PADDI-5) and domestic violence assessments for IL youth as well as offer C.A.R.E skill training (Child-Adult Relationship Enhancement skills building).NECCO Florence works regularly with difficult children, including those with a history of severe mental health issues and/or criminally delinquent behaviors. We cater to accomodating the needs of the teen parent population, including daycare services. We will accept youth that do not have a high school diploma or GED (we will assist the youth with obtaining once in our

Describe How the Program Supports Family Connections

Independent living is an extension of services along a continuum of care offered to older youth / adolescents who are nearing the age of majority and the end of their placement status. For these youth a positive start to life on their own is absolutely ESSENTIAL to a positive life outcome. In most cases these youth have no viable biological home or family supports to fall back on when times get tough. Necco's independent living program meets young people where they are in life and focuses on skills that promote self-reliance, good citizenship, responsibility, and self-esteem.

Special Interventions Available Internally
